

THREATENED TO KILL, SHE SAYS

Mrs. Pitcher's Serious Allegations Against Her Husband.

NO MARRIAGE SETTLEMENT

JUDGE TANNER TO TRY NYE-ALDERMEN CASES.

The married life of Charlotte J. Pitcher and Frederick W. Pitcher was anything but congenial and happy from the eve of their wedding, according to the answer to the cross-complaint which she yesterday filed in the district court as a reply to the answer which he filed to her complaint for a divorce, asked on the grounds of cruelty and non-support.

If the replication and answer Mrs. Pitcher alleges that neither she nor her husband have been a resident of this state for a year, and are not entitled to any redress at the hands of the Utah courts. Her answer to the complaint says that they never executed and delivered to each other a contract in writing in the nature of a marriage settlement.

Mrs. Pitcher does admit, however, that on March 29, 1895, the day before they were married, he forced her to sign a contract in relation to their respective property rights, which instrument was attested by a notary public, Mr. Pitcher, she says, refused to proceed with the marriage arrangements unless she signed the contract, although some of the wedding invitations had already been issued; that after the same had been signed by her, it was destroyed, she never having read it, or becoming acquainted with its contents.

The wife makes the further allegation that upon several occasions her husband threatened to kill her, and with the exception of paying her $15 per week and buying her a suit of underclothing valued at $2.75, has done nothing towards her support. She says that her husband made her life miserable at times by dunning her for the money which he paid for the underclothing. The use of vile names towards her is also alleged in the answer.

SECURE A CHANGE OF VENUE.

Cottrell and Fernstrom Are to Be Tried Before Judge H. S. Tanner.

Another delay in the prosecution of the criminal libel proceedings brought against Councilmen Cottrell and Fernstrom by City Attorney George L. Nye occurred yesterday when the defendants secured a change of venue. The proceedings were brought in the police court, of which Judge Chris Diehl is the judge. When the case was called yesterday Judge O. W. Powers for the councilmen asked for a change of venue. Judge H. S. Tanner of the city court, the grounds of inability to secure justice and a fair trial before Judge Diehl. The latter granted the motion, when the case will come up before Judge Tanner is not known.

The sheriff's office was kept busy yesterday subpoenaing the members of the jury, who are wanted by the defendant to testify in their behalf as to the alleged statement that the city attorney did investigate the city attorney's office, as Cottrell and Fernstrom stated in a committee report.

Four Suits For Divorce.

Four applications for divorce were filed yesterday with the clerk of the district court, as follows:

Hattie Chase Anstey vs. Fred J. Anstey, non-support. The couple were married at Salt Lake on Dec. 12, 1892.

Teresa Cuccio vs. Andrew Cuccio, non-support. They were married in this city on Feb. 24, 1892.

Marguerita H. Justice vs. George H. Justice, desertion. Couple were married at Newburg, Mich., Sept. 28, 1893.

Carolina Augusta Westerman vs. Carl August Westerman, non-support. Married at Koppenberg, Lan, Sweden, Oct. 1, 1877.

Lewis Grants a Divorce.

Judge Thomas D. Lewis yesterday granted his first divorce since he was appointed to the district bench by Governor Heber M. Wells. The plaintiff was Sylvia Adella Burr, who sought legal separation from her husband, Julius Alexander Burr, on the grounds of non-support. They were married in this city a few years ago.

RED GALLACHER WEEPS

Assault of Officer Gillespie Sheds Tears When Convicted in the Police Court.

"I've not only been persecuted in this case, but I have been persecuted, your honor, and I will never receive justice as long as that man, Officer Gillespie, is down there. Ask you, judge, to give me protection in the future. I am a man and must be treated as such. If you cannot give me justice, I will go to the mayor. If I don't get it there, I will appeal to the city council. I must have justice. If the law will not give it to me, I must get it myself, and by the gods in heaven I will."

Such was the appeal made to Judge Tanner yesterday afternoon in the police court by Red Gallacher, the black driver, after he had been found guilty of assault and battery upon Officer Gillespie. Before the judge pronounced sentence, Gallacher asked permission to make a statement to the court. His request was granted, and with tears in his eyes and his voice almost choking with anger he made the above statement. At the conclusion Judge Tanner sentenced him to pay a fine of $50 or the alternative, thirty days in jail.

The case was concluded about 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and the jury, composed of C. J. Rigson, Fred Langton, C. W. Rogers and Herman Grether, after being out about fifteen minutes, returned a verdict of guilty.

Gallacher was arrested for pushing Officer Gillespie from a hack several weeks ago while the officer was taking him to police headquarters. Gallacher made the defense that Gillespie reached for his gun and that he acted in self-defense. Gillespie denied any such action, and declared that he made no threats of any kind. Gallacher was also arrested on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon.

DECISION SOON ON ENCAMPMENT

War Department Expected to Act This Week.

PLACE FOR UTAH TROOPS

ELECTION OF COLONEL IS TO BE POSTPONED.

Before the end of the week it is expected that a decision will be reached as to the time and place for the annual encampment of the National Guard of Utah. The decision lies with the war department, for the militia of Utah will go to Fort D. A. Russell, the national guards of other states and with the regular troops if the government will so order. In case the war department will not issue the order to send the Utah troops there at national expense, the guard of this state will have an encampment somewhere in Utah. The time, in either case, will probably be the middle of August.

In preparation for camp at Fort Russell, with its various attendant maneuvering, Company D, the new organization, has begun a series of practice marches under Captain G. N. Warwick. The first took place Sunday up Emigration canyon. The second will be held next Sunday, the march being made to Murray. Officers of the National Guard and of the regular forces stationed at Fort Douglas went with the company. About thirty men turned out last Sunday.

Election of Lieutenant Colonel. No official announcement was made yesterday of the result of the election for lieutenant colonel. The successful candidate was J. J. Greenwald, but the canvassing board is awaiting the signature of Lieutenant Colonel John D. Spencer before making his formal report. No major was elected. Five votes are necessary to elect, and the highest number cast for any one person was two.

There will be no election of a colonel, according to the present outlook, until the regiment is recruited up to twelve companies. A conference of the governor's staff with the brigade staff was held yesterday to discuss the situation in the guard, which is being criticized from within and without. Nothing definite was accomplished.

Governor Wells, who has decided to make a personal investigation of guard conditions, has as yet made no move in that direction.

MILES USED HIS TEETH

One-armed Peddler Seizes James Williams' Nose and Nearly Bites It Off.

James O. Williams, an employee of the Elgin dairy, but his nose almost bitten off yesterday by Wallace Miles, a one-armed peddler. Williams claimed that he was standing by the wagon which he was driving when Miles came along.

"You stole my horse," exclaimed the peddler, at the same time seizing Williams around the neck and fastening his fingers in the latter's nose. Williams screamed lustily for the man to desist, which he finally did, but not before he had almost severed that organ from Williams' face. Williams immediately notified Officer Brown and Miles was arrested.

The wound was promptly dressed by a physician and it is believed that the appendage can be saved. Miles will be held on a charge of mayhem.

DOOLAN FINED $100.

Judge Lenient With Lad Mixed Up in Liberty Park Affair.

Lynn Doolan, one of the boys arrested for assaulting Officer Leaker at Liberty park some time ago, was yesterday sentenced to pay a fine of $100 or serve 100 days in the county jail. Immediately after sentence was pronounced the defendant's attorneys gave notice of appeal. This was granted by Judge Diehl, and the appeal bond fixed at $250.

In pronouncing sentence the judge said that he was inclined to be lenient because he believed that Doolan had been led astray by an older person.

"I do not believe that you are naturally bad, but you fell into bad company. You got on the wrong track and were led astray."

The cases of Herbert Houghton and Frank Davi, the other two boys implicated in the assault, will be heard before Justice Frank Clark. There will probably be no charge made against Wilson, the lad who was shot by the officer. The officials believe that he has been punished sufficiently already.

Dr. Fred W. Meakin has opened his dental office, suite 27, Hooper block.

All M. I. A. workers will be at Saltair M. I. A. day, July 15.

No street hacks at Farrington's stable.

MATTHEW GOES; ARTHUR STAYS

Deal Closed Regarding the Local Postoffice Situation.

THOMAS SAVES HIS SCALP

AGREEMENT IS THAT DAUGHERTY IS TO REMAIN OUT.

Matthew is to go. Arthur is to stay. Consideration and details of agreement not stated.

This is the outline of the dicker recently concluded, according to excellent authority, between T. Kearns, senator, party of the first part, and Arthur L. Thomas, Arthur Pratt, P. H. Lannan et al., parties of the second part, regarding a certain disagreement involving Matthew A. Daugherty, late cashier of the Salt Lake postoffice, and Arthur L. Thomas, present and prospective postmaster.

Be it remembered, that the said Matthew A. Daugherty on a date not far in the past, was summarily ejected from his position as cashier. Blaming the said Arthur L. Thomas for helping to "job" him, he sought refuge in the capacious and well-supported bosom of the said T. Kearns.

Thereupon, there were loud shouts for vengeance, threats of a scalp being around the brow of the said Thomas, and appeals to Washington to help carry out this carving.

Inspectors were sent out to investigate again and to "get" the said Thomas. Report later had it that both Daugherty and Thomas were "got," and that the faces of both would be missed from the Salt Lake postoffice. But postmaster Thomas and his political friends "got busy." There were lively goings on. Diplomatic negotiations began between the opposing forces, and now it is stated that a contract has been closed.

Just how Matthew is to have his grief assuaged is not known.

POOL ROOMS CLOSED.

Police Arrest Proprietor, Who Says He Will Fight Case.

The turf exchange resumed operations yesterday for a short time, but was promptly closed up by the police and F. M. Nelson, the proprietor, placed under arrest on the charge of conducting a gambling house. Nelson says he intends to fight the case to the supreme court if necessary and is confident of victory.

It has been rumored for some time past that business would start up again as soon as the grand jury was discharged. Yesterday morning Nelson telephoned to Captain Burdick and informed him that the pool room was in operation. The place was immediately visited by Detectives Chase and Raleigh, who placed Nelson under arrest and closed up the house. Nelson intends to test the case and declares that under the statutes, selling pools on horse races does not constitute the legal offense of gambling.

CRUSHES OUT THE LIFE

The most loathsome and repulsive of all living things is the serpent, and the vilest and most degrading of all human diseases is Contagious Blood Poison. The serpent sinks its fangs into the flesh and almost instantly the poison passes through the entire body. Contagious Blood Poison, beginning with a little ulcer, soon contaminates every drop of blood and spreads throughout the whole system. Painful swellings appear in the groins, a red rash and copper-colored spots break out on the body, the mouth and throat become ulcerated, and the hair and eye brows fall out; but these symptoms are mild compared to the wretchedness and suffering that come in the latter stages of the disease when it attacks the bones and more vital parts of the body. It is then that Contagious Blood Poison is seen in all its hideousness. The deep eating abscesses and sickening ulcers and tumors show the whole system is corrupted and poisoned, and unless relief comes soon this serpent disease tightens its coils and crushes out the life. The only antidote for the awful virus is S. S. S. It is nature's remedy, composed entirely of vegetable ingredients. S. S. S. destroys every vestige of the poison, purifies the blood and removes all danger of transmitting the awful taint to others. Nothing else will do this. Strong mineral remedies, like mercury and potash, dry up the sores and drive in the disease, but do not cure permanently. PAPA—Oh, what a pain! I believe I have a fever in the heart.

MAMMA—Nonsense, it isn't your heart, it's your stomach. Every time you eat, this hot weather, you get a sour stomach full of hot gases and acids, and you swell up until your heart hardly has room to beat. If you were not so obstinate, you'd take my advice and keep your insides cool by taking a CASCARET Candy Cathartic every night before going to bed. They work while you sleep and keep you regular in the hottest weather.
